

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE NEWS

GEN. FRANCISCO VILLA,

Who is planning a new military move against the Carranzista garrison at Mexico City, which the northern rebel leader declares he will soon occupy with his troops.

THE NATIONAL PALACE AT MEXICO CITY.

This beautiful mansion has been the home of many rulers of the republic, all recent dictators, except Villa and Gutierrez, having made their quarters there.

GEN. VENUSTIANO CARRANZA,

To whom the United States has sent stern messages demanding protection for foreigners in Mexico.

GEN. ALFREDO OBREGON,

Chief of the Carranzista garrison, in Mexico City.

AUSTRIANS AT THE FRONT.

Infantrymen in Franz Josef's army attempting to hold back the Russian advance near a village in Bukovina. Detachments of a dozen men each, scattered in various directions, have proved to be big factors in hindering the advance of the Czar's troops.

CAPT. J. B. RANSON,

Who was charged with the safety of enough foodstuffs and general merchandise to fill 1,500 freight cars when the White Star Liner Baltic sailed for Liverpool.

THE HARBOR AT SMYRNA.

Scene in the busy port of Smyrna, where the allies' shells have laid waste a large part of the water front.

CAPT. E. B. TOWSE,

Blind V. C. winner of the Boer war, has gone to the front to type letters home for Tommy.

MRS. W. K. VANDERBILT, JR., AND DAUGHTER.

The snapshot was taken as Mrs. Vanderbilt left her private car in Chicago, en route to the Panama Exposition, where she will entertain during the polo games to be held there.

MARY LOUISE WANAMAKER,

The daughter of the Philadelphia and New York magnate, at Palm Beach.
